CARIBBEAN FINE ART FAIR- NYC

Don't miss the opportunity to be seen at the Inaugural Caribbean Fine Art Fair NYC

Since 2011 CaFA Fine Art Fair has presented an annual curated exposition in Barbados highlighting drawings, paintings, photography, sculpture and new media by art galleries, institutions, and individual artists representing the Dutch, English, French and Spanish speaking Caribbean, as well the Diaspora Dialogue exhibit featuring the art of the African diaspora. This annual event, which attracts art enthusiasts and collectors from around the world, exhibits works by artists of Caribbean ancestry, including those at home as well as those living and working outside the region.

Caribbean Fine Art (CaFA) Fair NYC will offer a similar brand of diversity, quality, and excitement with a potential audience of millions including many looking specifically for art from the Caribbean region and African diaspora. The show will feature more than 30 exhibitors representing the finest in Caribbean Art, as well as renowned Global Diaspora artists. You are invited to submit an application to be a participating artist at CaFA Fair NYC 2026.

WHEN: October 30 – November 1, 2026

WHERE: CCCADI-Ile Oyin, 208 E. 126th Street, Harlem, NYC 10029

For five decades, CCCADI has been a cultural home for Caribbean and African Diaspora communities. Since its opening in the late 1970's, under the leadership of its visionary Director Dr. Moreno Vega, CCCADI has offered a collective space where African descendants honor the contributions of the global African Diaspora through exhibitions, performances, conferences, educational programs, and international exchanges. The 5000 sq. ft. facility is conveniently located at 208 East 126th Street (between 2nd and 3rd Avenues), just a heartbeat away from the main location at 120 E 125 Street, at the vital center of Harlem.

Who Should Apply

Artists of Caribbean heritage, African and African Diaspora heritage, and artist associations representing said artists may apply; however, space is limited and acceptance is based on the Selection Committee's recommendations, which includes CaFA Fair Directors.

Selection Process and Criteria

Each Applicant Must Submit the Following:

- For Arts Association and Collectives: a completed Exhibitor Application accompanied by a list of the artist(s) to be shown with 4 examples of each artist's work (digital images only), and a current bio for each. Institutions are limited to submission of maximum 3 artists.
- For Individual Artists: a completed Exhibitor Application accompanied by 4 images of the artist's work, and a current bio.
- The images submitted should be of artwork available for sale at CaFA Fair. Artist selection will be based on the artwork submitted, however replacement of any of the works selected can be made by agreement with CaFA Fair organizers.
- Exhibitor Application must be accompanied by the appropriate fee per artist submitted. Funds may be paid by e-transfer, credit card, International Money Order, or Bank Draft.
- All applications must be submitted by Friday, August 21, 2026, and exhibitors informed by Monday, September 1, 2026.

Responsibility of Artists

- Participating artists are required to professionally pack and ship (or deliver in person) artwork to the exhibition venue. Artwork will be received at the venue from October 30, 2026, 9 am – 3 pm. Works should be adequately insured. Cost of shipping (delivery) and insurance will be borne by the artist. CaFA Fair will facilitate receipt of artworks shipped to the facility during the week of October 26 – 29 on a case-by-case basis. Please communicate your plans to the organizers in due time and we will facilitate you.
- Participating artists will be responsible for the cost of shipping artwork back to their respective homes.
- All works should be professionally framed (in the case of paintings and works on paper) or otherwise professionally ready for display (in the case of three dimensional objects).
- Participating artists and associates attending CaFA Fair are expected to pre-se professionally.
- All transportation and lodging costs will be borne by the artists.

Responsibility of CaFA Fair

CaFA Fair will:

- Provide exhibition space and security for artwork while in its possession.
- Be responsible for promotion, design and management of the Fair.
- Provide sales assistance, including collection of payments for any consigned artwork sold.
- Provide shipping and logistical information/assistance to exhibitors traveling to NYC.
